

I am against the pending attempt to allow companies that a person has business with to solicite as much as they want. I placed my name on both the FCC and State of Indiana Privacy sites becasue I do not want any solicitation not requested by myself. This current preceeding undermines that right.